GROUP PROFILE FORM

The mission of SWR is to create opportunities that will deepen a person's understanding of God and themselves through the vastness and majesty of creation. In order to accomplish this, we feel that the spiritual aspect of your adventure is just as important, if not more so, than your daily excursions.

Please answer the questions below to help us understand how to best serve you in this area:

What is the spiritual condition of your group?

Are there any specific topics that you would like your group to focus on throughout their adventure?

What are your hopes for the individuals on this trip?

Would you like SWR to facilitate the group discussions? Y / N

We at SWR look forward to working directly with you to design an experience your group will never forget. We will be in contact with your Group Coordinator within a week of receipt of this form to refine your group's trip itinerary and determine the final price per person.
